

Flicks in the Sticks

Spring Programme at Clun Memorial Hall

Saturday 13 February A Bunch of Amateurs cert 15 96 mins
Fading LA action star (Burt Reynolds) finds himself caught between a rock and a Bard place after being duped into taking a gig as King Lear in Stratford, England. Problem is, this Stratford is not quite upon-Avon, but firmly placed in wet and muddy Suffolk. One-time Miss Money Penny Samantha Bond is a firm but sweet director determined the play's the thing – a comedy chosen for 2008's Royal Film Performance. Also starring Imelda Staunton and Derek Jacobi.

Saturday 6 March Fantastic Mr Fox cert PG Animated, 87 mins. The story of Mr. Fox and his wild-ways of hen heckling, turkey taking and cider sipping, nocturnal, instinctive adventures. He has to put his wild days behind him and do what fathers do best: be responsible. He is too rebellious. He is too wild. He is going to try "just one more raid" on the three nastiest, meanest farmers that are Boggis, Bunce and Bean. It is a tale of crossing the line of family responsibilities and midnight adventure and the friendships and awakenings of this country life. (Voiced by George Clooney, Meryl Streep, Bill Murray, Michael Gambon, William Dafoe)

Saturday 27 March Creation cert PG 108 mins, drama. What happens when a world-renowned scientist, crushed by the loss of his eldest daughter, conceives a book that will prove the non-existence of God. This is the story of Charles Darwin and his master-work "On the Origin of the Species". It tells the global revolution played out within the confines of a small English village; a passionate marriage torn apart by the most dangerous idea in history; and a theory saved from extinction by the logic of a child. With Paul Bettany, Jennifer Connelly, Jeremy Northam, Toby Hones, Benedict Cumberbatch

Saturday 24 April Bright Star cert PG 119 mins Drama: London 1818: a secret love affair begins between 23 year old English poet John Keats (Ben Wishaw) and the girl next door, Fanny Brawne (Abbie Cornish), an outspoken student of high fashion. This unlikely pair begins at odds, he thinking her a stylish minx, while she is unimpressed, not only by his poetry but by literature in general. Directed by Jane Campion

Saturday 1 May Morris—A Life with Bells On commencing at 8 pm
